

THE MAC AND CHEESE HOT DOG IS A THING OF BEAUTY

Have you ever been at a Disney Park, in line for a snack like some of Walt's Chili or a Mickey pretzel, when suddenly you see something on the menu that you've never seen before and that thing is the Mac & Cheese Hot Dog and your life is never the same again? Well, that exact thing just happened to us. (Editors Note: this isn't even fiction; our experience of this dog happened exactly this way.) We want to explore this whole new world we're seeing through Mac & Cheese Hot Dog-colored glasses.

Let us introduce you to the hot dog we are referring to that has stolen our hearts:

But when your order comes up, it actually feels a lot more like this because all of a sudden birds are chirping, music is playing, you're light as a feather—it's love at first sight:

Here it is in its natural habitat, on the patio outside of the Refreshment Corner at Disneyland. Notice that this glorious gem comes with both a fork and knife: don't sit there and act like you're going to tackle this hot dog traditional-style. Believe us, we tried. Don't be a hero; use the utensils.

This extreme close-up will help you bear witness to how the macaroni gleams as it catches the sunlight on a beautiful summer's day.

For those who haven't yet gotten to experience this tasty awakening, let us break down for you the culinary topography of the Mac & Cheese Hot Dog with a cross-section.

Based on its composition, this is what the perfect bite of this particular hot dog looks like. You need a bit of macaroni, a bit of bun, a nice amount of hot dog, and a dab of bacon bits. Mustard optional.

You're probably really curious about what this hot dog looks like in action, so here are some gifs to help you get a better idea of what this beauty looks like in the round.

Finally, we used the Disney Memories App to properly illustrate our love for the Mac & Cheese Hot Dog, the most regal of all the Disneyland snacks. We're glad to live in a world where you exist, new best friend. See you next time we're at the Park.
